Sermon Notes:

Mission of the Month – Ministry Developers Network (MDN - Bro. Anupam & Sis. Rachel Macky)

Praise points:

1. We helped a pastor and his wife start a boutique for their sustainability also provides a way to reach out to other tribes living in their community for the Gospel.
2. Pastor owning rental business supporting missionaries from his church and providing sustainable work and discipleship for young men in his church.
3. God has brought us together with several such people who have a heart for business and also want to use their businesses in the Gospel of Reconciliation.
4. God has brought people who are discipled and challenged in the Business where they learn skills that will help them live and share the Gospel.
5. The Board approved David A. Hietala as the new Executive Director for MDN.

Prayer points:

1. Pray for God's provision in meeting the needs for training and also bringing teams together for the planned workshops in India.
2. Pray for the participants to start businesses that are not separated from their faith. Pray that they would learn how to use these businesses to move the gospel forward within the unreached people.
3. Pray that I will be well rested and mostly over jet lag before the trainings begin.
4. Please pray for God's guidance as I invite a few nationals to join our ministry and help me with training and conducting workshops.
5. Pray for my wife and children as they take care of each other while I am away.
